TODAY'S BEAUTY TALK

You can enjoy a delightful shampoo with very little effort and for a very trifling cost, if you get from your druggist a package of canthrox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and hair until both are entirely covered by the daintily perfumed preparation that thoroughly dissolves and removes every bit of dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing, the hair dries quickly, with a softness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure.—Advertisement.

DELANEY CHANGES HIS TESTIMONY

Changing his testimony so that he protected the woman he had formerly denounced, Charles Delaney created quite a stir in police court yesterday. He was brought from the state penitentiary, where he had been sentenced to an indeterminate term for grand larceny, to testify in the trial of Mrs. Lena Falkner Van Komen, who, it was alleged, was in the plot with him. He seemed highly desirous of shielding the woman, asserting that he alone had made the plans to rob Frank Agard, an Idaho man. Agard was made drunk and robbed of $120, and a watch in a house in Glasgow addition.

City Detective J. L. Hobson was present at the trial and asserted that the story told now and at the time of the arrest were greatly at variance. Counsel for the woman moved that the charge against her be dismissed, but Judge A. E. Pratt denied the motion.

Evidence for the defense is being introduced this afternoon and a decision is expected before court adjourns.

RUTH CHATTERTON OPENS ORPHEUM SEASON MONDAY

The first road show of the Orpheum season will be next Monday, August 20, when the company which Henry Miller will bring to the Orpheum to appear in "Come Out of the Kitchen" will be virtually the same as was seen in San Francisco when the play was first produced in August of last year. With one exception the cast will be identical with that which appeared during the remarkable run of thirty-two weeks at the Coban theatre in New York.

Ruth Chatterton's performance in the stellar role has won the enthusiastic plaudits of more than 250,000 playgoers since she journeyed into New York from her successful preliminary season in the city by the Golden Gate, and it is their unanimous verdict that in the A. E. Thomas comedy she has scored a personal success greater even than she scored in her other triumphant vehicle, "Daddy Long-Legs."

Of the supporting company surrounding the little artist of slender grace and wistful charm, the general high standard of excellence may be inferred from the fact that Bruce McRae still continues in the leading light comedy role.

Others in the cast are Mrs. Charles G. Craig, Barbara Milton, William H. Sams, Robert Amos, Walter Connolly, Alice Baxter, Frances Goodrich, Raymond Walburn and Saxon Kling.—Advertisement.

NO EXEMPTIONS ARE TO BE ALLOWED BY BOARD

Members of the county exemption board for the selective military service state that they are besieged with requests for exemption because of various reasons, but mainly that of having dependents. They have received specific instructions impossible for them to ignore.

At a meeting held by representatives of local boards in Governor Bamberger's office on August 11 a decision was reached that as a matter of general policy claims for exemption on the following grounds would be disallowed: (1) Single men making claims for discharge on the ground of dependency. (2) Married men who were married since the declaration of war who claim discharge on account of the dependencies of their wives; (3) married men without children who claim discharge on account of the dependencies of their wives (4) all others not enumerated above who claim discharge on the grounds of having one dependent.

The notice to the local board was from Adjutant General E. A. Wedge-wood. It is also stated that soldiers can easily send $25 per month to their dependents without suffering hardship and that this ought to be taken into consideration when exemption claims are considered.

BENNICK PROVES HE IS NOT AN ALIEN ENEMY

Through the fact that Henry R. B. Bennick, 2220 Lincoln avenue, was born in Westernfeld and has not secured American naturalization papers, he was recorded in Ogden as one of the national army registered men upon the basis of being an alien enemy.

Announcement of the alien enemy list was made yesterday by the Ogden City exemption board and early this morning Bennick appeared at the Ogden city hall to announce his real citizenship and to record his willingness to take the examinations.

Bennick was born in Germany, but of Holland parents, who later returned to their native land. He came to America with a passport from Holland and presented this to the exemption authorities today to prove he is not an alien enemy.

His announcement will add one more to Ogden's list of men for examination, although Bennick appears far down on the new list, his liability number being 1942. He is a car repairer employed by the Southern Pacific railroad and is single.

He claims exemption as an alien, but in case congress passes the proposed law making aliens part of the army, he will be one of those certain of draft.
